St. James's, February 7.

THE Four following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, were by his Lordſhip preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the City of Exeter and Suburbs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the City of Exeter and Suburbs, think it incumbent on us, at this critical Period, to approach your Throne with the fulleſt Aſſurances of our moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Ever faithful to Monarchy on the moſt trying Occaſions, we have, with the utmoſt Concern, beheld the enormous Attempts lately made by your Majeſty's Miniſters, to raiſe a new Power in this State, totally unknown to the wiſe Framers of our excellent Conſtitution, which, by giving a moſt extenſive Patronage to the Servants of the Crown and People, might, by the Ambitious, have been perverted to the Ruin of the Liberties of both.

With the higheſt Satisfaction we reflect on your Majeſty's Interpoſition at ſo critical a Moment; and moſt humbly thank your Majeſty for diſmiſſing from your Councils the Men whoſe temerity dared attempt ſo unconſtitutional a Meaſure.

It is impoſſible for us to conſider that Event without freſh Admiration of the Conſtitution handed down to us by our Anceſtors; and we hope that in the well-compounded Legiſlation of this Nation there will ever be found ſome Branch ready to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preſerve inviolate the Faith and Honour of Parliamentary Engagement.

Sire! The Prerogatives of your Majeſty's high Office were annexed thereto for the Good of the People; and we beg your Majeſty will be pleaſed to receive our warmeſt Aſſurances, that your faithful Citizens of Exeter will always be ready to ſupport the conſtitutional Exerciſe of them to the utmoſt of their Power: Truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection for your People, we pray the Almighty that you may long reign in Peace over a free, happy, and united Nation.

[Signed by 471 Perſons.]

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth and its Environs, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the moſt profound Reſpect and Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government; to expreſs to your Majeſty the Anxiety we feel from the preſent calamitous Situation of Public Affairs, and our entire Abhorrence to the late Proceedings of a deſperate Faction, raiſed by a Set of Men lately diſmiſſed from your Majeſty's Councils, who, not content with attempting to rob a Part of your Majeſty's Subjects of their Rights and Properties, are, by obſtructing the immediate and neceſſary Meaſures of Government, aiming alſo at your juſt Prerogative.

We aſſure your Majeſty we ſhall at all Times be ready to maintain, with our Perſons and Properties, that noble Fabric the Britiſh Conſtitution, agreeable to its original Eſtabliſhment; and that whenever your Majeſty may find it neceſſary to exerciſe the Powers which the Laws have veſted in you, be aſſured, Sire, that in us you will find firm and ſteady Support.

[Signed by 202 Perſons.]

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceſton.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful, loyal, and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceſton, think it our Duty to approach your Throne with our ſincere Profeſſions of Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

We have beheld, with a Heart-felt Diſſatisfaction, the Conduct of your late Miniſters, and are ſenſible of the Tenderneſs and Regard you have ſhewn your People by their Diſmiſſion, flattering ourſelves you will ſtill continue to exert your Prerogative, whenever the Dignity of your Crown, and real Intereſt of your People, ſhall require ſuch an Exertion.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Launceſton, ſenſible of the Advantages we enjoy under your auſpicious Government, will always exert ourſelves in Support of your Majeſty's conſtitutional Authority, to the utmoſt of our Abilities; and it is our moſt ardent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may long, very long, reign a Patriot King, over a happy and united People.

[Signed by 96 Perſons.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of your Ancient Borough of Sudbury, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty at this critical Period, with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and at the ſame Time to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Regard to the Welfare of your People in diſmiſſing from your Royal Council a Set of Men actuated by Principles equally hoſtile to the Rights of the Crown, and to the Chartered Rights and Franchiſes of the People.

I. Lyon
T. Porter

Not content with having endeavoured to undermine your Royal Authority, as well in your undoubted Prerogative of granting Royal Charters, as in that of appointing your own Miniſters, they have even proceeded ſo far as to threaten to impede the Wheels of Government by withholding from your Majeſty the neceſſary Supplies for carrying on the Buſineſs of the Nation; and this with the avowed Deſign of obliging your Majeſty to abandon your preſent Miniſtry, and liſten to a Coalition, which may give them an Opportunity of once more obtruding themſelves into your Royal Truſt and Confidence.

Under theſe alarming Circumſtances, we conſider it as a Duty incumbent on us, to ſignify to your Majeſty our juſt Abhorrence of the dangerous and unconſtitutional Meaſures purſued and ſtill purſuing by them; and likewiſe to expreſs the Satisfaction we feel, and the entire Confidence we repoſe, in your Majeſty's late wiſe Appointment of Men of ſuch known Abilities and Integrity as thoſe who at preſent fill the ſeveral Departments of Adminiſtration.

And we think ourſelves the rather called upon to declare to your Majeſty these our Sentiments on the preſent Occaſion, from a thorough Conviction that the Voice of the preſent Houſe of Commons, ſo clamouroufly inſiſted on by the diſappointed Members of the late diſcarded Adminiſtration, is by no Means to be conſidered as the Voice of your Majeſty's People.

As the Prerogatives annexed to the Crown are an eſſential Part of our happy Conſtitution, ſo, under the Conduct of a wiſe and good Prince, they are the Subjects beſt Defence againſt any daring Attempts that may be made to erect, in a few deſigning Individuals, a Power equally ſubverſive of your Majeſty's juſt Prerogatives, and dangerous to the Rights and Privileges of your People.

We truſt your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to perſevere in ſuch Meaſures as in your Royal Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet, to preſerve the Luſtre of your Crow undiminiſhed, and to guard the Rights and Liberties of your People againſt the meditated Incroachments of a deſperate and deſigning Faction; and in this Hope we further pray the Almighty long to continue to us the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Reign.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſet our Names, and affixed the Seal of the ſaid Borough, this Thirtieth Day of January, in Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

[Signed by 138 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Wrotteſley, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Stafford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Staff rd.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with Sentiments of the ſincereſt Duty and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and anxious for the Preſervation of our preſent Free Conſtitution, we beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, on the preſent critical Situation of Public Affairs.

We admire your Maj ſty's Conduct in diſmiſſing from your Councils Men who have trampled on the Chartered Rights of your Subjects, and denied your Majeſty's conſtitutional Prerogative of appealing to your People; Men whoſe Avidity for Places and Emoluments would break down the Barriers of the Conſtitution, and involve their Country in Anarchy and Confuſion. We feel ourſelves impreſſed with the fulleſt Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Happineſs of your Subjects; we confide in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Appointment of your preſent able and upright Miniſters, and in the Exerciſe of your juſt Prerogatives.

[Signed by 161 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dyſart has been preſented to the King by Sir John Henderſon, Bart. Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Burgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dyſart, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Dyſart, in Council aſſembled, think it our Duty, at this critical Time, to approach the Throne with ſincere Aſſurances of our warm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

It is on all Hands admitted, that a Bill for regulating the Affairs of the Eaſt-India Company is become indiſpenſably neceſſary, but we your faithful Burgeſſes humbly conſider the one propoſed, and ſtrongly ſupported by your Majeſty's late Miniſters, as a violent Encroachment upon Property, and tending to eſtabliſh a Power hitherto unknown, and altogether incompatible with the Britiſh Conſtitution.

We therefore rejoice at the Rejection of a Bill fraught with the moſt alarming Conſequences, and beg Leave to expreſs our grateful Approbation of the wiſe and ſeaſonable Exerciſe of the Royal Prerogative, in the Diſmiſſion of Men whoſe Principles, from promoting ſuch a Meaſure, muſt appear ſubverſive of the ſacred Rights and Liberties flowing to us from our free and admirable Conſtitution.

Deeply ſenſible of your Majeſty's gracious Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of all your Subjects, we moſt humbly pray that Almighty God may long preſerve your Majeſty to reign over an happy and loyal People.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council, by Alexander Thompſon, Ch. Mag.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, has been preſented to the King by the Honourable Major General James Murray, Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, think it our Duty, at this critical and alarming Juncture of Public Affairs, to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Aſſurances of Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which, as it has ever been diſtinguiſhed by an inviolate Regard to the Laws and Conſtitution, we ſhall be ready at all Times to ſupport and defend with our Lives and Fortunes.

We

We cannot, without the deepest Regret and Indignation see this Empire and its Dependencies, once the Pride and Envy of the World, torn and dissevered by the Mismanagement of some Ministers, and shaken to its Basis by Factions and Parties intent on raising themselves, while the Public Good lies neglected and forgot, and the most clear and fundamental Prerogative of a Sovereign, who never has stretched or abused the Powers entrusted to him, is encroached on and denied, with Turbulence and Clamour.

Conscious of the Benefits we derive from our present excellent Constitution, and that we are equally interested to maintain it in all its Branches; we cannot behold, but with Abhorrence, every Attempt to invade the Powers of any of these which must ultimately tend to subvert the Whole; and we should be wanting to ourselves if we were not ready to oppose, to the utmost of our Power, every such Attempt.

Attached to no Ministers or set of Men farther than their Virtues and Publick Services render them worthy, our ardent Wish is for the Glory and Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign; and that we may ever see upright and able Men of your Majesty's Choice surround your Throne and assist in your Councils.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the said Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Perth, at Perth, the 27th of January, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

GRAY.

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Flood, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, by public Notice in Common Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Belfast, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with the deepest Impressions of Veneration and Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Deeply interested in the Welfare of the British Empire, and anxious for the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects, we sincerely rejoice in the late Dismission, from your Majesty's Councils, of Men whose Principles and Conduct are inimical to the just Prerogatives of the Crown, the Privileges of the Lords, and the inherent Rights of the great Body of the People. We most humbly thank your Majesty for exerting, in so salutary a Manner, a Power which the Constitution hath wisely lodged with your Majesty, for the Good of the People; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, to the Utmost of our Abilities, we will at all Times support the constitutional Exercise of the just Prerogatives of the Crown.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, prosperous, and happy; that disdaining the Trammels of corrupt and ambitious Faction, which obliterates the nobler Features of the Constitution, the Gracious Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland may place himself at the Head of the People, and dignify the present Æra, by giving Energy to their united Wishes, to purify the polluted Streams of Legislation, is the fervent Prayer of Millions of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Signed in the Name, and at the unanimous Desire of the Inhabitants of Belfast, in Common Hall assembled, the Twenty-fourth of January, 1784.

Tho. Stewart,
Chairman of the Meeting.
